

Explore Sussex by rail

Perfect for history lovers
& walkers

Explore two charming Sussex towns bursting with history and heritage. Starting the day at Horsham with its quaint markets, riverside walk and heritage trail then travelling on to Arundel and its impressive castle, this packed day out has something for everyone. Take a look at our suggested one-day itinerary from Horsham to Arundel or plan your own adventure using the suggestions overleaf.

Morning - Horsham

A short 15-minute walk from Horsham Railway Station will bring you to the heart of this historic market town. Alternatively catch the Metrobus from near the railway station to Horsham Bus Station or Albion Way, a 5-minute ride that delivers you to the historic town centre.

Enjoy browsing the quaint shops and exploring the thriving market scene including antiques, arts and crafts and local produce. Visit on a Saturday for the biggest selection.

Head to Horsham Museum & Art Gallery in the town centre to discover the area's rich history and local art collections. Stretch your legs and explore the town on foot with a self-guided heritage trail available from the museum. Or take a picturesque walk along the River Arun, through lush woodlands and rolling fields.

 Recommended time 2 hrs approx

Walk back to Horsham Railway Station or catch the bus from the Carfax or Horsham Bus Station and get the train to Arundel for lunch.

Lunch

After arriving at Arundel Railway Station walk into the town centre, following the signs and using the underpass. There are plenty of places to choose for a delicious lunch. The Motte and Bailey Café serves fresh, homemade food or the nearby Castle Restaurant in the Norfolk Arms Hotel provides seasonal seafood and some of the best offerings from the Sussex Downs.

 Horsham to Arundel 30 minute journey

Afternoon - Arundel

After a delicious lunch explore nearly 1,000 years of history at the magnificent Arundel Castle. Marvel at the impressive Gothic style architecture, discover the beautiful Earl's Garden and climb the steps to the keep to be rewarded with panoramic views of the River Arun, the sea, the town and the South Downs.

 Recommended time 2-3 hrs approx

Step back in time and experience life through the ages as you explore the award-winning Arundel Museum, located across from the castle.

 Recommended time 2 hrs approx
